

Submitted by: Alan Anderson

The Second Amendment is clear:

Article II – A well regulated Militia, being necessary to the security of a free State, the right of the people to keep and bear Arms, shall not be infringed.

For citizens of the United States, no law should be devised to infringe upon this right. Felons lose their rights and should be excluded, i.e. they should not be allowed to bear Arms unless their rights have been reinstated.